School for the Deaf
Indianapolis, Ind
November 27, 1939

Dear Mother,

How are you? I am well. I rode in a Rockville bus to Danville last Sunday morning and moved to another bus and came to Indianapolis. I bought a funny book of the Superman. Last Sunday afternoon I ate turkey at school for dinner. It was very good. Last Sunday night a naught little boy walked to the locker room. He looked and looked for something and he pulled my tag off of my suitcase and he put it into a suitcase. a boy saw him.

This morning a boy told me and I looked and I found the tag but the buckle is lost and I will make another in a shoe shop.

Thank you for a good time during Thanksgiving at home.

I love you very very much,

Ray